

Korimako

3 bedroom
93m²

This design is ideal for a large holiday home, first home or an attractive rental property. The open plan living area in the middle of the house separates the parent's bedroom from the kids and is ideal for entertaining.

This house has great kerb appeal, a modern home with contemporary style.

Ideally suited for a north-entry section with the home facing north or an orientation, where a breath-taking view can be enjoyed from each of the rooms. A northerly orientation allows for a light, sunny home with sun streaming in during winter, lifting your mood and reducing your power bills.
